

Sloan Featured Throughout Wrigley Field Ahead of 2019 Home Opener

2019 Marks the Fifth Season for Sloan as the Official Water Efficiency Partner of the Chicago Cubs

FRANKLIN PARK, IL (April 3, 2019) – Sloan, the world’s leading manufacturer of commercial plumbing systems, will welcome baseball fans to Wrigley Field for the fifth consecutive season as the Official Water Efficiency Partner of the Chicago Cubs.

After a successful Spring Training at Sloan Park in Mesa, Ariz., Cubs fans and players alike will be greeted once again at Wrigley Field by hands-free Sloan products beginning with the team’s April 8 home opener against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

“At Sloan, we always circle the Cubs’ home opener on the calendar as one of the most exciting days of the year,” said Sloan president Graham Allen. “Not only are we proud to once again be a part of Opening Day as the Official Water Efficiency Partner of the Chicago Cubs, but we’re also excited to deliver water-saving solutions throughout the concourse and the clubhouse.”

The home clubhouse will again feature Sloan’s sensor faucets, soap dispensers, toilets, urinals, and flushometers. The Wrigley Field concourse will be outfitted with products like Sloan’s innovative BASYS® sensor faucets, urinals, water closets, and more.

Sloan will have its logo placement featured on the right-field visitors’ bullpen doors within the ivy of Wrigley Field, along with logo placement in the opposing team bullpen.

Fans attending games at Wrigley Field can also find Sloan products in the surrounding Wrigleyville neighborhood before and after the game, at locations such as the brand new Hotel Zachary at Gallagher Way.
